The Parents' Directories

a free resource for parents of children aged 0-4 years

The Hills Parents' Directory 2010/2011 Business Advertising & Sponsorship

The Hills Parents' Directory is a genuine resource for parents that also provides an avenue for local business to reach a specific audience. It has been widely and enthusiastically received by health and welfare organisations, retail outlets and parents.

What is "The Hills Parents' Directory"?

The Hills Parents' Directory is a booklet that provides parents of children aged 0-4 years with a single resource containing local information as well as everyday important facts and tips. The Hills Parents' Directory includes:

- Local business advertisements specific to parents
- Playgroup & Community Information
- Immunisation info & childhood diseases table
- Important phone numbers (eg Poison Info, Hospitals, Emergency, etc)
- Websites for Parents
- Feeding, sleep & play tips
- Other relevant parenting info

Distribution

The Hills Parents' Directory is A5 size and 10,000 full colour hard copies are printed. The Hills Parents' Directory is also available as a downloadable PDF on The Parents' Directories website (www.parentsdirectories.com.au).

Distribution begins November 2010 with distribution points that include: doctor's surgeries/medical centres, community/neighbourhood centres, local businesses, welfare organisations, libraries, information centres, playgroups, coffee shops, schools, child care centres, and many other relevant community focal points.

The Parents' Directories are also promoted via The Parents' Directory website (www.parentsdirectories.com.au), The Parents' Directories Facebook page (www.facebook.com/parentsdirectories) and via directory listings on a wide variety of child-related websites and forums.

Why Should You Advertise?

- Distribution is directly to parents (not just anyone) so your advertisement is viewed directly by your target customers.
- Contains information that parents regularly refer to (eg immunisation information, important phone numbers) and therefore won't be thrown away after reading it once (like an advertisement in the local paper).
- ADVERTISEMENT RATES INCLUDE ALL DESIGN, so your ad will be professionally designed to show your business at its best!
- Advertisements are in FULL COLOUR - compared to other full colour advertising, The Hills Parents' Directory provides great value for money.
- The Hills Parents' Directory is distributed widely (see above) and regularly across the 2010/2011 year.
- All advertisers receive a FREE WEB LINK to their website from The Parents' Directories website
- All advertisers are eligible for DISCOUNTS on website ads on The Parents' Directories website (PLUS all large or full page ads receive a free website banner - see Terms & Conditions overleaf for details)

Who Can Advertise in or Sponsor The Directory?

To be included in the Business Directory section of The Hills Parents' Directory, businesses must specialise in, or be able to cater for, children aged 0-4 years and/or their parents. Shel Design reserves the right to refuse ads that conflict with the values and vision of Shel Design and The Hills Parents' Directory. Sponsorship opportunities are also available (see overleaf for options). These opportunities are OPEN TO ANY BUSINESS, regardless of whether they cater for children aged 0-4 yrs and/or their parents.

How Do I Book My Advertisement/Sponsorship in The Directory?

See the Application Form overleaf for information about costs and application process. Advertisements and sponsorships are limited and will be on a "first come, first served" basis.
